This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Historical Sketch.

The Congregational Church in Plymouth is as old as the town. The first settlers were mostly from Hollis, and the church was organized in that town April 16, 1764, before they came to Plymouth. This was the first church organized in New Hampshire north and west of Boscawen, and only Bennington, in Vermont, is older. The church in Newbury and Haverhill was gathered in the autumn of 1764. But it was afterwards limited to Newbury, leaving the church in Plymouth the oldest in Grafton county. It built the first meeting-house, gave the first call to a pastor, and enjoyed the first revival in the county.

Plymouth was first visited, with a view to settlement, by a party from Hollis, in Nov., 1762. The next spring men came on, and worked through the summer, clearing and building cabins, and some of them spent the winter. In the spring of 1764 the first families arrived, the wife of Col. David Webster having probably been the first woman in town. She came on horseback, bringing in her arms her infant, David, afterward so widely known. Among the first settlers we find the names of James Blodgett, Lieut. Josiah Brown, Capt. Jotham Cummings, Samuel Dearborn, Capt. James and David Hobart, Lieut. Zachariah Parker, Col. David, Amos, and Stephen Webster, Ephraim Weston, John Willoughby, and Francis Worcester.

Rev. Nathan Ward came by invitation to Plymouth early in the same year. He was born in Newton, Mass., April 11, 1721, son of Joseph Ward. He did not receive a liberal education, but, being converted under Whitefield's preaching, and possessing superior natural endowments, he was led in middle life to enter the ministry. His first settlement was in Newton, Mass., where he preached about seven years. In 1760 he was preaching in Newcastle, Me., and in Jan., 1761, received a call to settle there, which he accepted. But some difficulty arose, and the relation never was consummated, the invitation being withdrawn at his request in Oct., 1763.

He preached his first sermon at Plymouth, May 19, 1764, at Col. Webster's cabin, on the present grounds of the Pemigewasset House, from the text, Isa. 1: 19, 20. After spending four Sabbaths, he received a formal call to become pastor July 9, 1764. His acceptance, however, was delayed, and in February further overtures were made by the proprietors. These were successful, and he was installed at Newburyport, Mass., July 10, 1765.

A meeting-house was erected in 1767. It was of logs, 40 feet by 50, and stood facing south, a few rods south of the present road, at the foot of Meeting-house hill, having the stocks and whipping-post in the rear.

This house was burnt by an incendiary in Nov., 1787, for the purpose, no doubt, of hastening the work on the new house, the frame of which had just been raised. In this second house, on the top of the hill, the fathers worshipped God for fifty years, and very hallowed associations cluster around it. It continued to be used as a town-house till 1865, when it was sold at auction. A bell was provided Nov. 12, 1827.

The present house of worship was dedicated Dec., 1836, and first occupied on the Sabbath, Jan. 1, 1837. The chapel was built in 1851.

Mr. Ward's pastorate continued until Jan. 4, 1798, and he resided in town until his death, June 15, 1804. After Mr. Ward's dismission, Mr. Daniel Hardy, a graduate and recent tutor in Dartmouth college, preached "off and on" for six months, and was invited to become pastor. But he declined the call, and spent most of his life in teaching.

The next year Mr. Drury Fairbank accepted the call of the church, and was ordained Jan. 8, 1800. He was a native of Holliston, Mass., born Oct. 13, 1772; graduated at Brown University in 1797, and studied theology with Dr. Emmons. His pastorate continued until March 18, 1818. He removed the next year to Littleton, where, after a pastorate of sixteen years, he continued to reside, and died Jan. 11, 1853.

Rev. Jonathan Ward succeeded Mr. Fairbank, and, without installation, served the church as acting pastor eleven years. He was a son of the first pastor, born Aug. 24, 1767; graduated at Dartmouth college, in 1792, and also studied theology with Dr. Emmons.

His previous and only pastorate was in Alna, Me., of twenty years. After leaving Plymouth, he preached in Brentwood three and a half years, and in various places for shorter periods. He died in Brentwood, Feb. 24, 1860.

Rev. James Hobart, another son of this church, and the first male child born in town, Aug. 2, 1766, labored here for six months after Mr. Ward left. He had just been dismissed from a successful ministry of thirty years in Berlin, Vt., which continued to be his home during many subsequent years of labor among the churches of Vermont and New Hampshire. He died July 16, 1862, aged ninety-six years.

Mr. George Punchard was born in Salem, Mass., June 7, 1806. He was graduated from Dartmouth college in 1826, and studied theology at Andover. He was ordained pastor of this church, March 11, 1830, and dismissed March 6, 1844. In the spring of 1842 his health and voice failed, and he was absent six months. Returning, he was still unable to perform pastoral service, and in March, 1843, the church, declining to accept his resignation, gave him leave of absence again for a year, and contributed to his expense for a voyage to Europe. He was never able to resume ministerial service, but found useful employment in editing the Boston Traveller, serving the American Tract Society as its Boston secretary, and in elaborating the History of Congregationalism, the first edition of which, as well as his standard "View of Congregationalism," was written in Plymouth. He died April 2, 1880.

During Mr. Punchard's disability and after his dismission, Rev. Enoch Corser supplied the pulpit a year or more, and Rev. John U. Parsons, for some months.

Rev. William Reed Jewett was installed June 25, 1845. He was born in Rockport, Mass., Sept. 12, 1811, graduated at Amherst in 1831, and Andover, 1834, and had been pastor in Griswold, Conn., six years. His ministry continued until July 11, 1862. He was installed again at Fisherville, Sept. 16, 1863; dismissed Sept. 10, 1874, and died Aug. 26, 1882.

Rev. Henry Allen Hazen was born in Hartford, Vt., Dec. 27, 1832; graduated at Dartmouth in 1854, and Andover, 1857; ordained for Home Missionary service in Vermont at St. Johnsbury, Feb. 17, 1858, and installed pastor at Plymouth, Jan. 21, 1863; dismissed July 15, 1868. In 1867 a new manual was published edited by Mr. Hazen, who prepared a valuable chronological list of the members.

Rev. Cyrus Richardson was ordained pastor Sept. 30, 1869, and dismissed May 1, 1873. During his ministry extensive improvements were made on the church, and a valuable pipe-organ procured.

Rev. Geo. H. Scott was ordained pastor Sept. 3, 1873, and dismissed Sept. 9, 1881. In 1874 the parsonage was built.

Rev. Henry Porter Peck was ordained pastor June 1, 1882, and dismissed Sept. 16, 1889. The present pastor, Rev. Frank G. Clark, was installed Jan. 2, 1890.

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor was organized Aug. 10, 1886.

The first basis of doctrinal belief of which we have any record is in the form of a covenant, dated Oct. 22, 1799, but was, probably, the original covenant of the church. April 26, 1816, "Articles of Faith and Practice, together with a short covenant," were adopted. These articles were modified and simplified, without changing the essential doctrines, May 11, 1830, Dec. 1, 1864, and Oct. 30, 1890.

Reception of Members.

CONFESSION OF FAITH.

1. We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament were given by inspiration of God, and are the only infallible rule of faith and practice.

2. We believe that there is one only living and true God, mysteriously subsisting in three persons,—Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

3. We believe that God is perfect in all His attributes, unchangeable in His purposes, and universal in His providence, maintaining a righteous government over the universe, and working all things after the counsel of His own will.

4. We believe that man has fallen from the state of perfection in which he was originally created, and that now all men are by nature destitute of holiness and prone to sin.

5. We believe that regeneration is effected by the agency of the Holy Spirit, and that except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

6. We believe that the Son of God became incarnate, and by His sufferings and death on the cross, the just for the unjust, has made a full atonement for sin, so that God can now be just and justify him that believeth; and that pardon and eternal life are fully, freely, and sincerely offered to all men on the condition of repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

7. We believe that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and the unjust, and a Day of Judgment; and that the wicked will go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into life eternal.

8. We believe that God has appointed one day in seven to be kept holy unto Him, and that from the resurrection of Christ, the first day of the week is to be, to the end of the world, the Christian Sabbath.

9. We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ has established a visible church in the world; and that the conditions of its membership are credible evidence of regeneration, baptism, and a public profession of faith in Him.

10. We believe that Christ has appointed the sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper; that members of the visible church are entitled to partake of the Supper; and that believers and their offspring only should receive the ordinance of Baptism.

All these things you truly profess and cordially believe?

BAPTISM.

[The pastor will first address those who come by profession, and who have been baptized in infancy, as follows:]

You, who were dedicated to God in your childhood in the ordinance of Infant Baptism by your believing parents, do hereby declare your personal acceptance of the same, and your belief that the regeneration thereby signified has been wrought within your soul by the Holy Spirit.

[To others, on confession, the Pastor will say:]

You who trust that your hearts have been renewed by the Holy Spirit, but who have never received the outward seal of the covenant, will now, upon this profession of your faith, present yourselves for the ordinance of Baptism.

[When baptism has been administered, the Pastor will say to those coming by letter:]

Having heretofore in other churches professed your faith, you now come to us with their commendation. We greet you in Christ's name, and ask you, with these others, to enter into covenant with God and with this church.

COVENANT.

In the presence of Almighty God, His holy angels, and this assembly, you do now solemnly avouch the Lord Jehovah, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, to be your God, the supreme object of your affection, and your portion forever. You cordially acknowledge the Lord Jesus Christ as your Redeemer, and the Holy Spirit as your Sanctifier, Comforter, and Guide.

You cheerfully devote yourself to God in the everlasting covenant of His grace, consecrating all your powers and possessions to His service and glory; and you promise that through the assistance of His Spirit you will cleave to Him, as your chief good; that you will give diligent attention to His word and ordinances; that you will seek the honor and interest of His kingdom; and that henceforth, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, you will live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world.

You do also cordially join yourself to this church, having assented to its articles of Faith and Government. You engage to assist in and submit to its discipline; to strive earnestly for its purity, peace, and edification, and to walk with its members in charity, faithfulness, circumspection, meekness, and sobriety.

Do you thus covenant with God and with this church?

[Here the members of the church will rise.]

In consequence of these professions and promises we affectionately receive you to our communion, and in the name of Christ declare you entitled to all its visible privileges. We welcome you to this fellowship with us in the blessings of the Gospel, and on our part engage to watch over you and seek your edification.

May God, in His infinite mercy, give us grace to be faithful to Him, and faithful to each other while we live; that we may be admitted at last, through the atonement of Christ, to the everlasting fellowship of saints and angels, in the presence of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Baptism of Children.

[FORM WHICH MAY BE USED.]

[At the morning service of the appointed Sunday, after the invocation, the parents present their children for baptism, and the minister addresses them, saying:]

DEARLY BELOVED:—You present yourselves here to consecrate your child unto God. You rely upon the word of His covenant that He will be a God to His people, and to their children after them; and, relying on promised grace, you promise that you will faithfully endeavor to bring up this child in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, so that he may be led, through Christ's grace, to own this covenant himself in due time.

This you heartily engage?

[Baptism is administered, and a short prayer offered, after which the members of the church rise, and the minister adds:]

We, then, the members of this church, receive these children into special relationship of love and care; and we promise to aid you in your parental work by our sympathy, our example, and our prayers. May the Lord bless and keep you and your house, and bring you and them, with all the families that call upon his name, into the mansion of His everlasting rest. Amen.

Principles and Rules.

ADOPTED DECEMBER 10, 1891.

ARTICLE I.—NAME.

This Church shall be called the CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH of Plymouth.

ARTICLE II.—GOVERNMENT.

We hold that all ecclesiastical authority is vested in the local church, which has power to choose its own pastor, elect its own officers, make its own regulations, and conduct its own affairs in general, recognizing as its head only the Lord Jesus Christ.

At the same time we gladly enter into fellowship with other Christian churches of the same order, and consider ourselves bound to seek and expect advice from ecclesiastical councils in the more important affairs of church government.

ARTICLE III.—OFFICERS.

Section 1. The officers of this church shall be a Pastor, four Deacons, a Clerk, Treasurer, Auditor, and a Church Committee.

Sec. 2. The Pastor shall be chosen whenever a vacancy occurs. The Clerk, Treasurer, and Auditor shall be chosen at the annual business meeting. One deacon shall be chosen each year to serve for four years, and one member of the Church Committee to serve for three years.

Sec. 3. All the above named officers shall be chosen by ballot, without nomination, unless by a committee appointed for that purpose.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the Pastor to preach the Word; to administer the Sacraments; to take the spiritual oversight of the church; and, ordinarily, to act as Moderator in the meetings of the church and Church Committee. He shall give, at the annual meeting, a statement in writing of the number received into the church during the year by letter or by profession; of the number dismissed, deceased, or in any way disciplined; of the number baptized; the whole number of the church, male and female; of the names of all absent members; of the state of religion during the year; of the charities of the church; and of other subjects of general interest,—all of which statements shall be entered upon the records of the church.

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the Deacons to make provision for the regular observance of the Lord's Supper, and to assist in its administration; to aid the Pastor in keeping a spiritual oversight of the individual members of the church, and in organizing them into active labor for the sick, the poor, and the strangers in the parish; to provide leaders for religious meetings for which provision is not otherwise made; and to preside in the absence of the Pastor at business meetings.

Sec. 6. The Clerk shall keep an accurate record of all the business meetings of the church, a register of the members, with dates of admission, dismission, or death, together with a record of baptisms. He shall prepare and keep a proper catalogue and index of all the members of the church, notify officers, delegates, and committees of their appointment, conduct the official correspondence of the church, and keep on file all important communications and all other valuable papers of the church.

Sec. 7. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to take charge of all money contributed for benevolent purposes, for the expenses of the church and the support of its poor, and to disburse it to its authorized receivers, and present a report at the annual meeting.

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the Auditor to audit the accounts of the Treasurers of the church and Sunday-school before they are reported to the church.

Sec. 9. The Church Committee shall consist of three members of the church, together with the Pastor, Deacons, and Clerk.

It shall be the duty of this Committee to examine all persons who propose to unite with the church either by profession or by letter, and to present to the church the names of those whom they approve. They shall act as a committee of inquiry in all cases of discipline, and conduct any other business that may be referred to them by the church. It shall be their duty to make all necessary arrangements in regard to such plans for benevolence as may be adopted by the church, and provide for the passing of the contribution-boxes when necessary.

ARTICLE IV—MEMBERSHIP.

Sec. 1. Candidates for admission to the church on profession of faith shall be examined as to their Christian experience, by the Church Committee. If the approval of the Committee be accepted by the church, they shall be propounded to the congregation at least one week previous to their public reception. If approved by a two-thirds vote, by ballot, at the next regular business meeting of the church, they shall become members by publicly assenting to the Articles of Faith and Covenant.

Sec. 2. Persons bringing letters from other evangelical churches, if approved by the Church Committee and accepted by a two-thirds vote, by ballot, at a regular business meeting of the church, shall become members after entering into covenant with the church.

Sec. 3. Members of other churches who worship with us for more than one year are expected to bring letters, unless there be special reasons for delay. A letter dated more than a year previous to its presentation will not be considered valid without satisfactory explanation.

Sec. 4. Members who remove their residence beyond the reach of this church, should, if practicable, at once take letters of dismissal and recommendation to some other church; but no member shall be considered as regularly dismissed from this church until evidence of his reception by another church shall be received. Letters of dismission are valid for one year only from their date.

ARTICLE V.—DISCIPLINE.

Sec. 1. This church holds itself authorized to exercise discipline as a means of vindicating the honor of the Gospel, maintaining its own purity, and reforming and saving offenders. It accepts of Matt. 18: 15–17, as a Divine directory of the principle and spirit, and, so far as practicable, of the process, of church discipline, especially in cases of personal offence.

Sec. 2. Any member brought to trial by the church shall personally be furnished, ten days previous, with a written copy of the charges and the names of the witnesses relied on for proof. The confession of the accused, or the testimony of two witnesses or that which is fairly equivalent, shall be requisite for conviction.

Sec. 3. Every vote of extreme censure shall be announced at a public meeting of the church.

Sec. 4. Any absent member of this church who for two years in succession fails to give satisfactory reasons for not taking a letter of dismission, shall be regarded as violating his covenant relations with the church, and fellowship may be withdrawn after suitable effort has been made to obtain satisfactory reasons for the delay.

Fellowship may also be withdrawn, when the member, still resident, has abandoned his connection with this church by two years of absence, or by neglect of its service and communion, and after due notice has been given him of the action intended.

Sec. 5. No vote of censure shall be passed upon any member except by a two-thirds vote of the members present and voting.

ARTICLE VI.—SUNDAY-SCHOOL.

Sec. 1. The Sunday-school shall be under the special care of the church and its officers.

Sec. 2. The officers of the Sunday-school may be nominated by the teachers and elected at the regular business meeting of the church in December, at which time the report of the Superintendent shall be given.

Sec. 3. The Sunday-school year shall correspond with the calendar year.

ARTICLE VII.—MEETINGS.

Sec. 1. Public worship shall be observed morning and evening on Sunday, unless otherwise ordered by the church.

Sec. 2. The Lord's Supper shall be celebrated ordinarily on the first Sunday of each alternate month, beginning with the first Sunday in January.

Sec. 3. A meeting for prayer and conference shall be held on Thursday evening of each week. The meeting next preceding each Communion shall be made preparatory to the observance of that ordinance.

Sec. 4. Other devotional meetings may be appointed by the

Digitized by Google

Church Committee, as in their judgment the cause of Christ demands.

Sec. 5. The annual business meeting of the church, for the choice of officers and the transaction of other business, shall be held the second Thursday in February. At this meeting, the Pastor, Treasurer, Treasurer of the Sunday-school, and Auditor shall present their reports.

Sec. 6. Business meetings shall be held on the second Thursday of each alternate month, beginning with February, and at the close of the service preparatory to the Communion.

Sec. 7. At the business meeting in December the business in relation to the Sunday-school shall be transacted and the report of the Superintendent given, and a plan of benevolence shall be adopted.

Sec. 8. Special business meetings, of which notice shall be given from the pulpit on Sunday, may be called at any time by the Pastor, or by three of the Church Committee, and shall be called by the Clerk at the written request of seven members.

ARTICLE VIII.—GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Sec. 1. Fifteen members shall constitute a quorum for business at the annual meeting, and ten at the other meetings for business.

Sec. 2. Letters of dismission may be granted, delegates elected, and other business of like nature may be transacted by the members of the church at any devotional meeting.

Sec. 3. All members, male and female, are entitled and expected to vote.

Sec. 4. Vacancies that may occur during the year may be filled at any regular business meeting, and other officers and committees chosen not otherwise specified.

Sec. 5. At each Communion service a contribution shall be made to assist needy members, and to defray incidental expenses.

Sec. 6. No alteration shall be made in the foregoing Principles and Rules, and the Confession of Faith and the Covenant, unless such alteration shall have been proposed at the next regular business meeting previous, due notice given on the Sabbath, and by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting. But these Rules may be suspended in particular instances, in whole or in part, at a business meeting, by a unanimous vote of the members present and voting.
